

Mission of the Albany Port District Commission

The APDC “shall have power over the survey, development, control and operation of port facilities and such facilities, operations or things as may be incidental or appurtenant thereto, within such port district, and the coordination of the same with existing or future agencies of transportation, with a view to the increase and efficiency of all such facilities and the furtherance of commerce and industries in the district.”

See APDC Enabling Legislation, § 4.